

CHORUS IMPACT STUDY TOOLS

JUST FOR STUDENTS: TOP 10 REASONS TO JOIN A CHORUS

- 1) You get to be loud. Always feel like you're being shushed by teachers and adults? In choir, you're actually encouraged to make noise.
- 2) Friendship. More than 42 million Americans sing in choruses, so you're sure to make some new buddies.
- 3) See the world! Many choirs go on tours to exciting and faraway places.
- 4) Begin the path to stardom. Mega-celebs Beyoncé and Justin Timberlake started their careers singing in school and church choirs. Even President Obama was once a choral singer.
- 5) Bring home A's. Research shows that students who sing in choruses get better grades than students who don't.
- 6) Make your college application shine. Admission folks will love to see that you're involved in extracurricular activities—especially an activity like choir, which develops teamwork skills and self-discipline.
- 7) L'amour. Lots of singers date people they meet in choir, because music is the food of love, after all.
- 8) Back rubs. Yeah, that's right: back rubs. Many choruses do them as part of their rehearsal warm-ups.
- 9) No schlepping. Singing does not require carrying around heavy instruments or gym bags. All you need is your fab voice.
- 10) Bragging rights. Not everyone can say they've been in the spotlight, but you'll be able to because singing in a chorus gives you the opportunity to be front and center, baby!
